Pursuant to Rule 6(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule IA 6-1 of this Court's Local Rules, Plaintiff Evanston Insurance Company ("Evanston" or "Plaintiff"), through undersigned counsel, hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

Plaintiff filed its Complaint in Interpleader on April 14, 2025. ECF No. 1.

Among other parties named as defendants to the Complaint, Plaintiff named Nevada Beverage Company ("NBC" or "Defendant") which it caused to be served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint via personal service on May 6, 2025.

The current deadline for Defendant to respond to Plaintiff's Complaint which was initially extended for 30 days by stipulation is June 26, 2025.

On May 22, 2025, counsel for both Evanston and NBC agreed to a 30-day extension of time for NBC to respond to Evanston's Interpleader Complaint. At that time, a first stipulated request for a 30-day extension of time was submitted and entered as an order of this Court. [ECF No. 92.]

The parties continue to discuss a proposed disclaimer of interest from NBC which would result in a stipulation of dismissal of NBC from this action. A further extension of 30 days is needed to enable the parties to finalize their ongoing negotiations over the proposed course of action. It would therefore be in the parties' best interest to continue their discussions concerning this matter without the immediate deadline of NBC's response to the Interpleader Complaint.

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(b), a court may, "for good cause," extend a deadline if a request is made "before the original time or its extension requires." Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)(1)(A); see also Local Rule IA 6-1(a). The Ninth Circuit has equated good cause with the exercise of due diligence. See Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations, Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 609 (9th Cir. 1992). Good cause exists here because counsel has been diligent in coordinating with each other, requesting the information necessary to respond to Plaintiff's allegations, and investigating the possibility of a dismissal. Additional time is needed for counsel to finalize their negotiations.

1 Accordingly, the parties, through undersigned counsel, submit this stipulation to 2 a further 30-day extension from June 26, 2025, to July 28, 2025, for Defendant NBC to 3 file a response to the Interpleader Complaint. This is the second request for an 4 extension of time. 5 This stipulated request is filed in good faith and not for the purposes of undue 6 delay. 7 Respectfully submitted this 26th day of June 2025. 8 TIFFANY & BOSCO P.A.
